Defendant-appellee NextEra Energy, Inc., has no parent corporation, and no publicly held company owns 10% or more of its stock.

Defendant-appellee Florida Power & Light Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy, Inc.

Appellees respectfully move for a 21-day extension, to and including January 7, 2026, of the time to file a petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc. Appellants have informed appellees that they consent to the motion.

1. The Court issued its opinion in this appeal on November 26, 2025. Under Eleventh Circuit Local Rule 35-2, the current deadline for appellees to file any petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc would be December 17, 2025.

2. Reasonable justifications exist for appellees' request for an extension of time. Counsel for appellees has several other briefs and obligations due during, or shortly after, the relevant time period, including:

- Oral argument in Gruden v. National Football League, No. A-21-844043-B (Nev. Dist. Ct.), on December 4.
- A brief for appellees in In re National Football League Players Concussion Injury Litigation, No. 25-2271 (3d Cir.), on December 8.
- A reply brief in support of a petition for a writ of certiorari in Audi AG v. L.W., No. 25-349 (S. Ct.), on December 10.
- Oral argument in Zafirov v. Florida Medical Associates, LLC, Nos. 24-13581 & 24-13583 (11th Cir.), on December 12.

- A petition for rehearing in Custodia Bank v. Federal Reserve Board of Governors, No. 24-8024 (10th Cir.), on December 15.
- A reply brief in Motovich v. United States, No. 25-2986 (2d Cir.), on December 15.
- A reply brief in support of a petition for certiorari in Moses v. United States, No. 25-399 (S. Ct.), on December 23.
- A petition for a writ of certiorari in Day v. Henry (S. Ct.), on December 30.
- A petition for a writ of certiorari in New York Football Giants, Inc. v. Flores (S. Ct.), on January 2, 2026.

3. Additionally, the period in which to file a rehearing petition included the Thanksgiving holiday, and a shorter extension would overlap substantially with the upcoming religious holidays.

4. Counsel for appellees has conferred with counsel for appellants, who has represented that appellants consent to this request.

5. This is the first request for an extension of time by appellees with respect to a petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc. Appellees, with the consent of appellants, previously requested and received a 60-day extension of time in which to file its responsive brief on appeal. This request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. No party will be prejudiced if it is granted.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kannon K. Shanmugam
